One Bread, One Body

Dear WIC family:

Last Sunday we were the church, the body of Christ, in deliberation and fellowship, as we held a congregational meeting followed by a WIC potluck meal. Thanks to everyone who participated in the meeting, and to those who could not be present but sent in proxy forms. We just barely had a quorum, so we needed every one of you. Thanks, too, to those of you who were present in prayer. We needed you too!

The congregation passed the 2007 budget – with anticipated expenses a little higher than 2006, because it is a pastoral transition year and there were no moving expenses in 2006; but with anticipated income lower than 2006. It will be a challenge!

We also elected Adeyinka Bankole to the congregational council. This is Adeyinka's second time in Warsaw and at WIC, and it was a delight first to change his status from "alumni" to "active" and then at the congregational meeting to elect him to the council.

Finally, we voted unanimously to thank Krystyna VanDeer for her years of service as WIC treasurer. She has done a great deal for WIC, and we are still looking for a new treasurer.

This week we are the church, the body of Christ, as we gather for worship with Holy Communion. The Good News of Jesus Christ that we share in Word and Sacrament is what empowers us for giving, witnessing, inviting, planning, welcoming, rejoicing and living as God's people.

With love and hope,

Pastor Beth

Names, Days, Saints is on break while Bill Couch is away. Our prayers are with him in the aftermath of his mother's death.

Holy Words

*Now, Lord, you have kept your promise,
and you may let your servant go in peace.
With my own eyes I have seen your salvation,
which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples:
a light to reveal your will to the Gentiles and bring glory to your people Israel.*

--Simeon's song (Luke 2:29-32) on the presentation of Jesus in the Jerusalem temple
(commemorated 2 February)
